

Veterinary educational seminar: Curriculum revision kick-off workshop

Program:

- 7:45 Transport (bus) from Frederiksberg Campus to Tåstrup Campus
- 8:30: Coffee
- 9:00: Wellcome by Hans Henrik Saxild, Vice-dean for Education and Peter Holm, Head of Veterinary Study Board
- 9:10: Revision of the Norwegian veterinary curriculum – why and how!
by Anne Elisabeth Thorgersen, BVM&S, Cert Vet Ed, senior curriculum advisor, NMBU, Norway
- 9:50: The medical curriculum at HEALTH - who do we academically prepare bachelor students to meeting patients in a real clinical setting.
by Jørgen Kurtzhals, professor, Head of medical studies, HEALTH.
- 10:30: The present curriculum revision – visions, missions and intended outcomes set by the Veterinary Study
by Peter Holm, Chairman of the Veterinary Study Board
- 11:15 Group discussions and inputs to the 4 curriculum revision working groups.
(participants are split in 8 groups that rotate between tables manned with the working group members)
- From 11:15 Working lunch (sandwich and water)
- 12:15 Presentation of group discussions and input by "table chairmen"
- 12:30 Future veterinary medical education and international educational collaboration.
by Wim Kremer, DVM, PhD, Vice-Dean of Education, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine
- 13:45 Final conclusion by Peter Holm
- 14:00 Transport (bus)* to Frederiksberg Campus

* Busses also leave for Frederiksberg Campus at 12.00 and 13.00 for participants who can only join the morning program